

CSBS English Newsletter

January & February 2018

Welcome to the first edition of the English Newsletter. We hope you enjoy the opportunity to read our CSBS news in English.

Book Review

By Amna (1A)

Pride and Prejudice

One of Miss Lai's favourite books is Pride and Prejudice. It is a romance novel written by Jane Austin.

The story is set in 17th century England. The main characters are Elizabeth and Mr. Darcy. At first, Eliza didn't like Mr. Darcy because he was very proud of himself.

So what happens to change her mind?

You'll have to read the book (or ask Ms. Lai) to find out!

She likes this book because of the attractive plot and the vivid descriptions of characters.

Maybe you will too!

Student writings

Read what CSBS students have been writing.

This month's feature is the Halloween Writing Contest winners:

- F.3A Alishiba – Horror Love Story
- F.1A Amna – Haunted Home
- F.2B Neha – Haunted Classroom

Congratulations

to winners of English competitions:

Halloween Face	1B Jason
Costume Design	2B Annie
English Speech Festival
1 st Place F.5 Boys	Su Chenggang Salman
1 st Place F.5 Girls	Sadia Halema
3 rd Place F.1 Girls	Amna Khalil

Upcoming Events

Sponsored by The English Club

January	America & Pakistan week
15 – 18	+ Tasty foods
	+ Games
	+ Baseball / Cricket: pitch & hit
	+ Prizes
February	Chinese Fai Chun Writing
April	Easter Egg Hunt
May	Tongue Twisters & English Week

Joke of the month

Why did the boy eat his homework?

Because his teacher said it was...

a piece of cake!

This edition of the CSBS English Newsletter has been brought to you by the English Editorial Committee

Editor in Chief..... Meenail

Contributing editors & reporters..... Isha Amna
 Kat Amy
 Neha Daniel
 Preetii Eiman
 Sabah

Graphics design Ian Kat
 Meenail